

An internationally recognized building and construction firm, working on prestigious high-rise residential condominiums and office building projects, invites applicants for:

SITE ENGINEER

Job Description

- Site planning and coordination for all works
- Assist in monitoring the site progress & ensure quality standards of project
- Prepare and update all site reports
- Initiate appropriate corrective / preventive action

Requirements

- Degree in Civil Engineering/Building or equivalent
- Minimum 4 years local structural experience for building projects preferably in the construction industry
- Independent, highly motivated and good team player
- Possess construction or safety certification will be highly advantageous